OUR BRITISH COUSINS

Gossip Connected With the Social Functions of New Year.

THE ADORATION OF TITLES

BRITISHERS' CONTEMPT FOR THEM INSINCERE.

Stupendous Capital Floated For Enterprises Last Year—Klondike Absorbed $6,750,000—Windfalls of the Year—Track Winners—Health of the Gladstones.

London, Jan. 1.—(Copyright, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The year opened with a bright sun and there is many instances where flowers are blooming in gardens in the south of England.

The complaints of shopkeepers, which are universal, are attributed to the baneful influence of the jubilee festivities. The numerous country houses, parties also thinned the number of west end purchasers.

The queen's New Year's gifts to the poor of Windsor were distributed today at the palace school in the castle. There were nearly 1,000 recipients and about 4,000 pounds of beef and 100 tons of coal were dispensed.

The prince and princess of Wales started Monday to pay a visit to the duke and duchess of Devonshire at Chatsworth. The prince and princess will occupy the royal apartments in the castle. The duke and duchess will take place on the dais.

The marriage of Lady Anne Coventry, second daughter of the earl of Coventry, to Prince Duple Singh, will take place on Jan. 10.

The United States ambassador, Colonel John Hay, and Mrs. Hay are visiting the earl of Chester, who was knighted in the jubilee honours, on Monday last, sustaining a fracture of the collar bone and injuries about the head.

The Italian Chronicle says the late duchess of Devon had debts to the amount of £200,000, mostly household expenses. The expenditure at the White Lodge, which was the residence of the duke, exceeded the duchess's allowance, £5,000 ($25,000), by £2,000 ($10,000) yearly. Whether the effects of the duchess will be sold to meet the deficit depends upon whether the government will apply to parliament for funds to meet the emergency.

INSINCERE BOAST.

Judging from the new Lebrecht peerage, the Britishers' boasted contempt for foreign titles is only affectation, as 14 members of the nobility hold foreign titles, while those of lesser rank are thicker than blackberries. In this connection it is interesting to note that the jubilee was a record year for the bestowal of honours, which totalled 577. The charitable bequests of the year also topped the record, totalling £2,000,000 ($10,000,000). Without the Wallace collection bequest, which amounted to £1,000,000 ($5,000,000), the total aggregated £1,000,000 ($5,000,000) in charity.

STUPENDOUS CAPITAL.

A great number of companies were floated during the past month. The total capital offered in 1897 was $3,500,000 ($17,500,000), the largest amount since 1889. The foreign governments, India and colonies, £11,000,000 ($55,000,000); breweries and distilleries, £11,000,000 ($55,000,000); cement, £12,000,000 ($60,000,000); cycling, £10,000,000 ($50,000,000); hotels, £10,000,000 ($50,000,000); Klondike, £11,750,000 ($58,750,000); American railroads, £10,000,000 ($50,000,000); mines, £23,250,000 ($116,250,000); and industrial and miscellaneous, £12,500,000 ($62,500,000).

SOME WINDFALLS.

A chancery law lawyer contributes an annual letter to the press in regard to the windfalls of the year, among the missing leaders and legends, many of whom are believed to be in America. Among others, fortunes are awaiting W. G. Clement, who sailed for California in the steamer Albatross, who entered the United States navy in 1862; the descendants of John White, the first attorney general of upper Canada; C. B. Sayles, who went to America in 1870, and Joseph Pickup, of Wisconsin.

The will of Alfred Nobel, the Swedish chemist and expert in high explosives, who died at San Remo, Italy, on Dec. 3, 1896, has been proved. The personality is valued at £24,000 ($120,000). Among the legacies is Alfred Harwood, of Watertown, N. Y., who received £2,000 ($10,000). About half the estate goes to relatives, and the remainder is invested, the interest annually to be divided into five prizes of about £2,000 ($10,000) each.

PHILANTHROPY.

Prizes one, two and three are to be awarded to the persons making the most important discoveries in physics, chemistry, physiology or medicine. Prize five is to be given to the person making the best literary contribution upon the subject of physiology of medicine, and prize five is to be awarded to any person who has achieved the most or done the best thing looking toward the promotion of the cause of peace throughout the world. These prizes, which are all open to any person, are to be given to the winners by the Norwegian parliament.

TRACK WINNERS.

The conclusion of the French racing season finds M. Menier's list of choicest favourites at the top of the list of winners, with £2,000,000. The next is the Viscount de Harcourt, £1,000,000. Then comes Baron Schickler, with £500,000. Among the winners of French steeplechases, M. de la Roche, the actress, leads, with £100,000.

Sir Thomas and Lady Hasketh (formerly Miss Florence Sharon of San Francisco) have taken Barrett's Kidnare, for the remainder of the season. Lady Hasketh made a brilliant debut with the Kidnare hunt. She finished in the front ranks, and at the end of a 30-minute run.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

There was a dramatic scene at the National Liberal club on Wednesday. In the midst of the speeches the chairman called upon Mr. Gladstone to deliver a speech. A photograph immediately gave an extract from Mr. Gladstone's last speech in the house of commons. The words were clearly heard. Mr. Gladstone said:

"It is not for the commons to pronounce judgment on the subject. There is a higher authority than the commons. It is the judgment of the nation, which, in the last resort, must decide. An immense outburst of applause greeted the repetition of these memorable sentences."

GLADSTONE'S HEALTH.

There are disquieting reports regarding Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone's health. They attended church at Christmas and appeared to be most robust. Mrs. Gladstone had to be led to the communion table, while Mr. Gladstone was compelled to cling to the chair rails on his way there. Mr. Gladstone's sight is worse. On leaving the church he failed to see his carriage, which was only two yards off. It is reported that Herr Richter, the well-known conductor of Vienna, expects to accept in 1898 a long-standing offer of a tour of the United States.

INJURED IN A PANIC.

Celebration in New York Attended With Serious Accident.

New York, Jan. 1.—One of the results of last night's celebration was an accident in which 15 persons were more or less seriously hurt, and it is feared some of the injuries may prove fatal. The persons were hurt by the Utah men are interested in a telephone line to be established between Evanston, Wyo., and Randolph, Utah. The Utah-Rich Telephone company has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state with a capital stock of $50,000. The new company is headed by Evanston, Wyo., and several national bank notes were found, in addition to quite an amount of Confederate money.

The ferryman on the Grand, just below the mouth of the Dolores, has a new way of getting information from those wishing to cross the river. His best girl lives four miles above the ferry, and at her house the ferryman finds it more pleasant to pass his time than on the desolate banks of the Grand. He has a sign posted on each side of the river, reading: "If you want the ferry, build a fire." When the ferryman sees the smoke, he rides down and crosses the parties. The great drawback to the scheme is that, owing to not even a sagebrush growing within two miles of the crossing, people are compelled to gather their fuel supply before getting into the barren district.

Idaho Falls Times: The hunting party, consisting of Dr. Jones, John Andrews, George Harriman and Clarence Chapin, returned last Tuesday night from a "deer" hunt, on Birch creek, about 60 miles west. They succeeded, after several days of hard work and persistent hunting, in capturing one poor, lone and friendless, half-starved buck.

At Salmon, on Wednesday, A. J. McNabb met with a singular accident. While he was throwing a box from the top of a house, a nail caught the ring on his finger, carrying him down a distance of eight feet, breaking one wrist and fracturing the other. He is generally bruised, but is still in the hospital.

John D. Bell of Blackfoot has been appointed to a clerkship in the office of the surveyor general of Idaho. Miss Leona Leonard of Boise has been appointed stenographer in the same office.

Nevada. At the poor farm, outside Carson, Patrick Henahan died on Wednesday, aged 22 years.

Wootton, the man arrested at Reno on suspicion of committing the Steamboat robbery on last Saturday night, was turned loose, it being concluded that the evidence was not sufficient to hold him.

The fire boys at Reno presented Chief Hodgkinson, on Christmas, with a handsome chiefs badge of gold.

UBER LYNCHING AFFAIR. Judge Mack Takes the Bull By the Horns at Genoa.

Judge Mack has taken the bit in his teeth regarding the lynching of Adam Ober, says the Enterprise, and before he left Genoa Wednesday afternoon something was heard to drop, and now for the first time since the terrible affair it looks as though the criminals would be brought to justice.

When the judge arrived in Genoa the grand jury was waiting and Attorney Turner said he had received a telephone message from District Attorney Nagle from Carson, saying he was ill and would not be able to present the case to the jury, but asked that the old grand jury be discharged on the grounds that many of them had signed a document favoring mob law.

The district attorney had appointed no one to act as his deputy, however, and the court was convened with a grand jury waiting and no attorney for the state present.

Judge Mack remarked that the district attorney had not acted right in the matter and he should at once appoint a new district attorney as provided by the statute. Attorney Turner declined the appointment, which was finally accepted by Attorney Virgin under some little protest. Mr. Virgin said he supposed the court meant he was to act temporarily, but the court merely replied: "Mr. Virgin, you are now district attorney of Douglas county, and you may remain so for months."

Judge Mack discharged the old grand jury because three of them had signed a paper favoring mob law. Judge Mack's remarks were to the point and shook things up in such a way that something will happen in Douglas county before many days. The new grand jury, to meet Jan. 12, was then drawn.

CLUBBED TO DEATH.

Appearance of a Wealthy Missourian Found Murdered.

St. Louis, Jan. 1.—John Doring, aged 70, a highly respected and wealthy citizen of Belleville, Ill., was found dead in bed today, his head having been crushed in with some blunt instrument in the hands of robbers, who ransacked the house for valuables, and who then escaped without leaving a clue as to their identity.

Mr. Doring lived alone in his home, and as he did not appear at the usual time this morning, neighbors notified his son, who investigated and found his father dead. A club had evidently been used by the robbers, who crushed Mr. Doring's face into an unrecognizable mass. It is not yet known whether they secured any great amount of money or not.

John Doring was the father of ex-City Treasurer Doring of Belleville, Ill., who committed suicide about one year ago, when a shortage in his accounts was discovered.

In addition to the wounds received on the face, Doring's head was almost severed from the body with a butcher knife, which lay near the bed covered with blood.

A suspicious looking man, whose name is not given, was arrested in the woods near Belleville and placed in jail. It is thought he was connected with the murder, or knows something of it.

MOTIVES FOR SUICIDE.

Fowler, Ind. Jan. 1.—Charles Kirtley, treasurer of Bentley county, committed suicide last Tuesday. The revolver with which he did the deed was purchased last May. There are grave fears that shortages will appear on his books.
